Contents

A Note from the Editor i-v

Balik-Kilatis sa aking Pagsusulong ng Kritikal na Pilosopiyang Pilipino 1-30
F. P. A. DEMETERIO III

Dreamscapes from Recto Street: A Parallel Reading of Demeterio's Partially Published Novel and the Highlights of His Works on Filipino Philosophy 31-60
WILMA M. CRUZ AND JOHN MARTIN DIAO

The Mabaquiao-Demeterio Debate: Assessing the Direction of Filipino Philosophy 61-93
RODRIGO D. ABENES AND MARY IRENE CLARE O. DELEÑA

Giving to the Other as a Way of Philosophy of Dialogue: with A.I. Communicating B.A.R.M.M. with the World 95-125
FR. JAIME D. DEL ROSARIO, NINIO O. SAGUCOM, AND
JAMES EDISON S. ANDAYA

Slavoj Žižek and his Sublime Object of Ideology 127-147
DOMINIC B. GONZALES

Addressing the Bobotante Phenomenon: Towards Filipino Solidarity Through Rorty's Irony 149-173
JEAN ALCHIE T. CAPACIO

Makibeki, 'Wag Mashokot: Ang Pagrampa ng Grupong Bahaghari para sa Kanilang mga Karapatan 175-202
GABRIEL JOSEPH A. BARROSO

Decluttering as Social Ecology: A Sustainable and Critical Response of the Self towards Ecological Issues from Capitalism 203-220
LEX REI BRENDON A. HILARIO

The Limits of Logic in Social Analysis: A Reply to Pariñas 221-238
JETHRO DARYLL G. PUGAL

Revisiting Dewey's Philosophy in the Context of the MATATAG Curriculum 239-265
JOMAR D. REDUBLA

On the Discourse of Indigenous Capital and Cultural Commodification in Media and Performance 267-287
JOHN A. AMTALAO

Semiological Discourse Analysis of Image Order and Functional Dialectics in Bernal's 1980 Film, Manila by Night 289-312
SHIRLEY PALILEO

The Rise of AI-Capitalism: Rethinking Marx's General Intellect in the Age of Machinic Automation 313-335
ANDAMAN S. ALIMAN, JR.

Comprehensive Sexuality Education in the Philippines: An Evidentialist Critique 337-356
NOLLY CHRIS P. LOPEZ